Canberra’s ecological footprint

• The average ecological footprint of Canberrans was 8.9 global hectares per person (gha/person)

• The total ecological footprint of all ACT residents is approximately 3,300,000 global hectares, nearly 14 times the geographical area of the ACT.

[Map images showing the ecological footprint]

Process and workplan

• 2016 / 17 Establish OCSE / ANU steering committee and working group
• Expert workshop(s) – ensuring process is rigorous and all elements are critically reflected upon
• Design & implement communications strategy
• Iterative process of designing and populating accounts for:
  - Waste
  - Water
  - Air
  - Environmental Expenditure
  - Land
  - Energy
  - Ecosystems
• Revise account structure and update data following exposure draft comments – 2018
• Finalise accounts and prepare SoE report based on the accounts for submission to government - 2019